122.	2024 Château de la Deidière, Côtes de Provence, France A classic blend of Syrah, Cinsault and Grenache from one of the leading producers in the heart of Provence. Deidière has been a supporter of the Marquis since it first opened.	£13	£17	£47

REDS

LIGHT & BRIGHT RED

201.	2023 Ribeira Velha Douro Tinto, Portugal Exciting times for Portuguese reds, with winemakers crafting consumer friendly easy drinking styles. A blend of local varieties – Touriga Nacional, Tinta Roriz, Touriga Franca.	£9	£12	£32
209.	2024 Merlot Mourvèdre, Les Oliviers, Languedoc, France Made from a single plot of Merlot and another single plot of Mourvèdre soaking up the Languedoc sunshine to successfully combine into a luscious, spicy red.	£9	£12	£32

SERIOUS FRUIT DRIVEN REDS

232.	2023 Merlot, Aromo Estate, Maule Valley, Chile Aromo has become an award winning Estate focused on quality, and their Merlot is a perfect introduction combining velvety texture with boundless fruit enhanced after several months maturing in oak barrels.	£10	£13	£36
234.	2023 Shiraz/Cabernet, The Landings, South Australia (v) A classic blend that heralds an easy drinking red, full of smooth blackcurrant and plum fruit flavours with a touch of spice.	£8	£11	£30
243.	2020 Pinot Noir, The Crusher, Clarksburg, California Pinot Noir will always command a premium, which is why we are so excited by the sheer quality of Don Sebastiani's wine: it seems to tick all the boxes and delivers a turbo-charged palate of velvety fruit.	£13	£17	£47
246.	2019 Bodegas Ontañón, Reserva, Rioja, Spain A chance to enjoy a sublime Reserva from an outstanding vintage in Rioja. The British palate has a soft spot for the wines of this region, where Tempranillo and Garnacha grapes are in perfect harmony. Ideal for red meat dishes, especially lamb, or with selected cheeses.	£14	£19	£52

POWERFUL, RICH AND SAVOURY RED

270.	2023 Carménère Reserva, Adobe, Colchagua Valley, Chile (v, o) Carménère has become a success story for Chile, and here Emiliana's organic red is bursting with fruit and impressive in its structure. Red meats, seasonal game, pasta and cheese all partner well.	£10	£13	£36
272.	2024 Malbec, Bodegas Tapiz, Mendoza, Argentina A chance to enjoy a Malbec with plenty of Argentinian muscle. The deep intense colour heralds a punch of red and black fruit showing off the fine potential of Mendoza's high altitude vineyards. A worthy partner for lamb, beef or game dishes.	£13	£17	£47
280.	2023 Gigondas, Domaine de Font-Sane, Rhône, France An area located close to Mont Ventoux, where the Grenache dominated vineyards cling to the slopes of the spiky Dentelles hills. These make up a stunning backdrop to the vineyards that are responsible for some of the deepest, concentrated red wines from the southern Rhône.	£18	£24	£70
